Sidewalk Safety for Yourself and Others

- The Mammoth Lakes Police Department would like to share an important reminder regarding sidewalk safety via the California Vehicle Code.
- It is a myth that pedestrians have the immediate right-of-way at a crosswalk. If you enter the crosswalk without looking or taking your own safety into consideration (i.e. walking blindly into the path of a vehicle), you have not established your right-of-way nor have you practiced self-preservation.
- According to the California Vehicle Code (CVC), pedestrians need to stop at the entrance to the crosswalk, look, and establish their right to cross before proceeding. Establishing your right-of-way means you arrived at the crosswalk first and clearly indicated your intention to cross. Make sure drivers see you (think eye contact or a wave) and make sure you stay in the crosswalk. Once you walk outside of the crosswalk, you are no longer protected by the vehicle code in the same manner.
- Drivers don't think you're off the hook here. The CVC says you must fully STOP at a stop sign and scan for other vehicles and/or pedestrians waiting to cross. Whoever arrives first, whether vehicle or pedestrian, gets the right-of-way to cross first. If two vehicles arrive at the same time, the vehicle on the right has the right-of-way. Look to your right and that vehicle goes first. Review the entire Social Spotlight post online.
